

Cambridgeport School COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS

How might we work together to understand and address racism at Cambridgeport?

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27 | 6-8PM

Cambridgeport Library

Dinner provided at 5:30PM

Please join us for a community conversation for families and educators about racism at Cambridgeport.

This will be session 2 of a 4-part series of conversations leading to concrete action.

The evening will be co-facilitated by Allyson Livingstone and Gene Thompson-Grove.

Allyson Livingstone is the Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Education Training and Development at Brandeis University.

Gene Thompson-Grove is an independent consultant who has worked extensively within Cambridge Public Schools, focusing on building the capacity for transformational learning.

Children will attend their own session about racism with Wee the People.